

Finishing your Cal.com booking setup

Mo Lumen Astrology · two settings to change before the new site goes live

Hi Mo — there are two things left to set up in Cal.com, plus one small typo to fix. None of this touches the website itself; it is all inside your Cal.com account.

Roughly 30–40 minutes. You do the same short edit on each of your nine readings, so the first one takes a few minutes and the rest go quickly.

Nothing here can break the website.

If you get stuck partway through, just stop. Half-finished is completely fine — the site behaves exactly the same until we switch it on.

Why these two things matter

1. The website says every reading is on Zoom or the phone. Right now the booking page doesn't ask that — it asks people to type a location into an empty box labelled “Somewhere else.”

That box is the last thing someone sees before they enter their card details. Most people won't know what to put in it, and a confusing question at the payment screen is where bookings get abandoned.

2. The website tells people they'll send you their birth details when they book. At the moment Cal.com never asks for them.

So two things go wrong. The client finishes paying without being asked for anything and wonders whether it went through properly — and you have to email every single client to chase their birth date, time and place before you can cast a chart.

Both are quick fixes.

Part 1 — Fix “Somewhere else” (all nine readings)

Zoom is already connected to your account, so this is just a matter of picking it.

You'll repeat this for each of your nine readings:

- Natal Chart Reading — 60 minutes · Natal Chart Reading — 90 minutes
- Relationship Astrology Consultation
- Want More Clarity — Follow-Up Reading · Want More Clarity — within 3 months

- Solar Return Reading · Life Changes Astrological Consultation
- Quick Check-In — One Topic · Monthly Personal Transits

Steps

- 1 Go to cal.com and sign in.
- 2 Click Event Types in the left menu. Your nine readings are listed there.
- 3 Click the first reading.
- 4 You'll land on the Setup tab. Scroll to the Location section.
- 5 It currently says Custom attendee location. Click the X next to it to remove it.
- 6 Click Add a location » choose Zoom Video.
- 7 Click Add a location again » choose Attendee phone number.
- 8 Click Save (top right).

What that does

Instead of an empty box, the person booking now sees a simple choice:

Where should we meet?

(☐) Zoom (☐) Phone

If they pick Zoom, Cal.com creates the meeting link automatically. If they pick Phone, Cal.com asks for their number and shows it to you — so you call them.

Two things to avoid

Don't pick "Organizer phone number." That publishes your own number on the booking page for anyone to see. Attendee phone number is the one you want.

Don't add an in-person option. In-person DFW sessions are described on the site as something arranged with you directly, and adding it here would turn that into a standing self-service offer.

Part 2 — Ask for birth details (three readings only)

This is the screen you already found — the Booking questions section with the + Add question button at the bottom.

You only need to do this on three readings, not all nine:

- Natal Chart Reading — 60 minutes
- Natal Chart Reading — 90 minutes
- Relationship Astrology Consultation

Your follow-up readings are for people whose charts you already have, so asking them again would be odd. There is an optional small addition for those further down.

How to add a question

- 1 Event Types » click the reading » click the Advanced tab.
- 2 Scroll to Booking questions.
- 3 Click + Add question.
- 4 Fill in the Input type, the Label, whether it is Required, and the placeholder if there is one.
- 5 Click Save on the question, then Save on the page.

For BOTH natal readings — add these five

Do this on Natal — 60 minutes, then again on Natal — 90 minutes.

#	Question (label)	Input type	Required ?	Placeholder
1	Birth date	Short Text	Yes	12 April 1988
2	Do you know your birth time?	Radio	Yes	options below
3	Birth time, if you have it	Short Text	No	3:42pm — leave blank if you're not sure
4	Birthplace (city and country)	Short Text	Yes	Austin, USA
5	What would you most like to explore?	Long Text	No	Two or three real questions you're living with

For question 2, choose Radio as the input type and add these three options exactly:

Yes – from a certificate or reliable record

Roughly – I know the part of the day

No, and I'm not sure where to find it

Please keep question 3 optional, and keep that third radio option

This one really matters. Plenty of people genuinely don't know their birth time — there is a whole page on your site about how to track one down, and the Reading Finder is written to reassure people about it.

If the booking form *demand*s a birth time, all of that kindness ends at a hard stop on the payment screen, and you lose a client who would have been perfectly happy to book.

Asking the question is useful. Requiring an answer is not.

For the Relationship Consultation — the same, twice

This reading looks at two charts, so it needs both people's details. Add the same five questions twice, once for each person, with the person's label at the front so it is obvious which is which:

Person A – birth date

Person A – do you know your birth time?

Person A – birth time, if you have it

Person A – birthplace (city and country)

Person A – what would you most like to explore?

...then the same five beginning Person B –

Only the two birth dates, the two birth-time radios and the two birthplaces need to be Required. The rest stay optional.

Optional — one question on the six follow-up readings

Not essential, but it saves you an email each time.

Reading	Question	Input type	Required?
Want More Clarity (both versions)	What would you like to go deeper on?	Long Text	Yes
Solar Return Reading	What's your focus for the year ahead?	Long Text	No
Life Changes Consultation	What transition are you navigating?	Long Text	Yes
Quick Check-In — One Topic	Your one topic — specific beats broad	Long Text	Yes
Monthly Personal Transits	Anything you'd like me to watch for?	Long Text	No

While you're on the Advanced tab — one small tidy-up

In your Booking questions list there is a stock question called “What is this meeting about?”

On Quick Check-In it is already switched off — the grey toggle and the “Hidden” tag next to it. On some of the other readings it is still switched on, and where it is, it is a required question.

It is a strange thing to ask someone who has just chosen “Natal Chart Reading — 90 minutes,” and the questions above replace it with something far more useful. So on each reading, if it is showing, click its toggle to switch it off.

You can leave Additional notes, Add guests and Reason for reschedule exactly as they are.

Part 3 — Fix the Quick Check-In description

The Quick Check-In event is currently showing the wrong description — it is the Monthly Personal Transits text (“A standing 30-minute Zoom each month...”), which describes a different reading at a different price.

- 1 Event Types » Quick Check-In — One Topic.
- 2 Setup tab » the Description box.
- 3 Delete what is there and paste in the wording below — it is what is already on your website — then click Save.

“One area of life suddenly chaotic — or one place you want to grow? Thirty focused minutes on how your astrological influences are affecting that single topic.”

When you're done — a two-minute check

Please do this bit, because it is the only part nobody else can test for you.

- 1 Open cal.com/molumen/natal-90 in a normal browser window (or a private one).
- 2 Pick any available time.
- 3 Look at the form. You should see: Where should we meet? with Zoom and Phone — not a box saying “Somewhere else”; your new birth-detail questions; and no “What is this meeting about?”

Stop there. Don't complete the booking.

It would charge a real card and put a real appointment in your calendar. Looking at the form is all that's needed.

If it looks right, you're finished.

If something looks wrong

Send Shane a screenshot of the booking form and say which reading it was. Nothing here is irreversible — every one of these settings can be changed back.
